Middletown Church Fight.

The annual election for elders and deacons was held on Sunday last in the Lutheran church of Middletown, with the Synod Committee in charge. After turning down many names of both fac-tions they proceeded to ballot with the following result: For Elders: S. D. Bussard.

John T. Derr 55 oshua D. Ahalt: Daniel C. Kepler.....122 C. M. Brane. Sam. M. Stine C. Will Ahalt For Deacons: M. L. Mock Wm. H. Gaver 126 Roy A. Huffer 122 Philip E. Flook..... George D. Derr. 49 Walter E. Beachley..... Oscar F. Doub.....

George E. Shank There was a total of 172 votes cast in the election out of a total of 600 communicante and 900 confirmed members.

What effect the election will have upon the congregation is not known. It is rather expected that the warrying bands will remain in the church, however, as the fight has existed for nearly a quarter of a century and neither faction has seen fit to withdraw.

The committee, Rev. Dr. W. S. Owen, chairman, rendered their report on Monday to the congregation , which appeared to favor the Routzahn faction. However the election was a clean cut victory for the Doub element on Monday Much feeling was manifested by many members of the congregation, both at the nomination and election of officers as well as the report of the committee. Rev. Gentzler it is said favors the Routzahn faction.

Rev. Thomas Bernard Martin, of Harper's Ferry, W. Va., has been transferred to Staunton to act as assistant to Rev. William A. McKeefry, whose parish includes the Harrisonburg Catholic church.

Prof. LaGarde Endorsed as Minister to San Salvador.

Hon. Ernest LaGarde, the well-known Professor at Mt. St. Mary's College of Roman languages, is strongly endorsed for appointment as Minister to San Salsalvador. He has the endorsement of the Democratic Senators and Congress-men of the State as well as the Judges of the Louisiana and the business men of New Orleans. The papers filed with Secretary of State Bryan set forth that Professor LaGarde is peculiarly fitted for the appointment. He has been in San Salvador a number of times. He enjoys a large acquaintance with the busine men of that country, developed by his business connections there. As a professor at Mount St. Mary's College he has taught many of the men who are now officials of the island. It is further declared that Professor LaGarde, if named, will be in position to develop the trade between the country and the United States

Professor LaGarde speaks fluently Span sh, German, French and Italian. He also lectures on international law at Mount St. Marv's

Professor LaGarde is well known in this city and has a host of friends in this county and State. His personality is pleasing and has the best wishes of his friends for his appointment for which he is so splendidly equipped.
